

It's really common for the coat of arms to be split into four sections where each section means something that's about you or your family, it could be strong, intelligent, hard working, caring, responsible, or could stand for different nationalities in your family's past.

Below the coat of arms will often be the family name, it can sometimes be a motto such as James Bond's family motto 'The World Is Not Enough', or MI5 [British Intelligence Service] which is 'Defend the Realm'.

On the next page are a number of possible symbols and what they mean. Get stuck ask Mr Hanif in class, or by email mhanif@newbridgegroup.org, MUST BE HANDED IN THE WEEK YOU RETURN TO SCHOOL.
